Swimming Pools Act 1992, No. 49

Local authority must grant certificate of compliance if swimming pool complies with this Part.

- 24 (1) The owner of any premises on which a swimming pool is situated may apply to the authority for a certificate of compliance with respect to the swimming pool.
- (2) If satisfied that the swimming pool complies with the requirements of this Part, the local authority must issue to the applicant a certificate to the effect that, as at the date on which it is issued, the swimming pool complies with those requirements.
- (3) The issue of a certificate under this section does not prevent the local authority from giving a direction under Section 23 in respect of the swimming pool concerned.
- (4) For the purpose of any appeal proceedings arising in connection with an application under this section, the local authority is taken to have refused the application if it has not finally determined the application within six (6) weeks after the application was made.

Swimming Pool Regulation 1998 No, 479

- 14 (1) A local authority may impose a fee of up to $70.00 on an application for a certificate of compliance under Section 24 of the Act.
- (2) An application made to a local authority under Section 24 of the Act is to be in the form approved by that authority.
- (3) The form must contain a statement to the effect that:
- (a) the applicant is entitled to appeal to the Land and Environment Court against the local authority's refusal of the application; and
- (b) the local authority's failure to determine the application within six (6) weeks after it is made is taken for the purposes of any such appeal, to be a refusal of the application.
- (4) A local authority that refuses to issue a certificate under Section 24 of the Act in respect of a swimming pool must cause notice of its decision to be served on the owner of the premises in or on which the swimming pool is situated.
- (5) Such a notice:
- (a) must give reasons for the decision; and
- (b) must state that the owner of the premises is entitled to appeal to the Land & Environment Court from the decision.
