Request for heritage consultation and advice

Office Use Only

Date Received

Council's heritage advisor is available by prior arrangement to provide advice about renovation and maintenance of heritage listed buildings and structures in the Hawkesbury City Council area, prior to carrying out the works. The service is available to owners and managers of heritage items that are listed in either the Hawkesbury Local Environmental Plan or the NSW State Heritage register, and the initial consultation is free. The consultation will generally take place on site.

While the advice is given in good faith, by submitting this form you acknowledge that any advice received in no way binds a decision by Council if used in relation to any subsequent planning/development applications. Note that there may be circumstances where Council is unable to provide the advice being sought for legal or other reasons.
