HAWKESBURY LIBRARY SERVICE - CHILDREN'S ONLINE RESOURCES

Hawkesbury Library is keeping the kids busy at home during school closures.

If you are trying to keep the kids busy during lockdown, Hawkesbury Library Service has a great range of online resources to help. All you need is your membership card to get access to these online resources.

Looking to find them something to read ?

Overdrive : Is an enormous online catalogue that contains eBooks, eAudio Magazines and comics for all ages.

Storybox Library : A storybook catalogue for younger children where they can listen to stories written by local authors and illustrators and read out loud by fantastic Australian and New Zealand storytellers.

Trying to keep them entertained?

Beamafilm : Use your Library membership to watch free streamed popular and classic films.

Artfilms : Also accessed for free with your Library membership, you can stream movies and documentaries that will inform and educate.

BusyThings : Children of all ages can explore hundreds of games and activities here, developing literacy and numeracy skills whilst having fun!

Join the Library online for free now!
