

FIND LEGAL ANSWERS

Home access

Library access

find
LEGAL
answers

What is Find Legal Answers?

The State Library of NSW provides access to free NSW-specific plain language legal information in one easy-to-navigate location.

The website is organised by legal topic, making it simple to find information relating to your specific situation. Topics include housing, debt, insurance and workplace, among others.

Find Legal Answers also features a range of fully digital publications on their site, such as the Tenant's Rights Manual, Hot Topics publications and the Family Law Handbook.

What can I use it for?

The State Library of NSW's Find Legal Answers site can be used by anyone needing to find information on specific NSW legal topics.

Suitable for anyone, children working on school assignments to adults trying to navigate real legal situations.

To get started, go to the following web address and click on 'Find Legal Answers' for free access:

<https://www.hawkesbury.nsw.gov.au/library/elibrary/information-and-reference-online>

Special features

- Organised by legal subject for easy searching
- Written in plain English for easy understanding
- Access to full legal publications
- Links for finding free and low-cost legal help

