EXHIBITION: PAPER SCISSORS ROCK

UNTIL SUNDAY 10 MARCH

Paper as a material is unpretentious; it is functional and efficient. And despite our existence in the 'digital age', paper remains a pervasive part of the day to day. Paper is ordinary and because of this the 'possibilities of paper' in the hands of creative and inquisitive minds, can be simply extraordinary. Paper Scissors Rock will explore the contemporary use of 'paper', through diverse media including sculpture and installation, video, drawing, painting, collage, photography, and jewellery.

The exhibition is accompanied by Cardboard Place, a drop in makerspace dedicated to all things cardboard and paper. Young creatives can make crowns, explore colouring, or let their imaginations run free by adding to the box world installation!
