The Hawkesbury 'Citizen of the Season' has been established by Hawkesbury City Council in association with Richmond Club Limited to recognise individuals in our community for their outstanding contribution. One of the four citizen of the season winners will be chosen annually to receive the Citizen of the Year Award announced on Australia Day.

Criteria

For a person to be eligible for this award certain criteria must be followed:

- A nominee must be an Australian citizen
- A nominee must be over the age of 25 (as on Australia Day following year)
- A nominee must be a Hawkesbury resident or if not, have made a significant contribution to the local community over an extended period of time or demonstrated extensive commitment, and the local community directly benefits from this.
- Citizen of the Season Award can only be received by an individual once in their lifetime
- A recipient of the Citizen of the Season Award will not be eligible to receive a Citizen of the Season Award again for five years
