Background and Methodology

Hawkesbury City Council sought to examine community attitudes and perceptions towards current and future services and facilities provided by Council. Key objectives of the research included:

- To assess and establish the community's priorities and satisfaction in relation to Council activities, services and facilities
- To identify the community's overall level of satisfaction with Council's performance
- To understand and measure community response to a series of long term Council resourcing options

To facilitate this, Micromex Research was contracted to develop a survey template that enabled Council to effectively analyse attitudes and trends within the community.

Questionnaire

Micromex Research, together with Hawkesbury City Council, developed the questionnaire.

A copy of the questionnaire is provided in Appendix B.

Data collection

The survey was conducted during the period 26th August to 3rd September 2013 from 4:30pm to 8:30pm, Monday to Friday.

Survey area

Hawkesbury City Council Local Government Area.

Sample selection and error

The sample consisted of a total of 400 residents. The selection of respondents was by means of a computer based random selection process using the electronic White Pages.

A sample size of 400 residents provides a maximum sampling error of plus or minus 4.9% at 95% confidence.

The sample was weighted by age to reflect the 2011 ABS census data.

Interviewing

Interviewing was conducted in accordance with IQCA (Interviewer Quality Control Australia) Standards and the Market Research Society Code of Professional Conduct.

Prequalification

Participants in this survey were pre-qualified as not having an immediate family member who works for Hawkesbury City Council.

Background and Methodology

Data analysis

The data within this report was analysed using SPSS and Q Professional. To identify the statistically significant differences between the groups of means, 'One-Way Anova tests' and 'Independent Samples T-tests' were used. 'Z Tests' were also used to determine statistically significant differences between column percentages.

Ratings questions

The Unipolar Scale of 1 to 5, where 1 was the lowest importance or satisfaction and 5 the highest importance or satisfaction, was used in all rating questions.

This scale allowed for a mid range position for those who had a divided or neutral opinion.

Mean rating explanation

Mean rating:

1.99 or less	'Very low' level of importance/satisfaction/support
2.00 – 2.49	'Low' level of importance/satisfaction/support
2.50 – 2.99	'Moderately low' level of importance/satisfaction/support
3.00 – 3.59	'Moderate' level of importance/satisfaction/support
3.60 – 3.89	'Moderately high' level of importance/satisfaction/support
3.90 – 4.19	'High' level of importance/satisfaction/support
4.20 – 4.49	'Very high' level of importance/satisfaction/support
4.50+	'Extremely high' level of importance/satisfaction/support

Note: Only respondents who rated services/facilities a 4 or 5 in importance were asked to rate their satisfaction with that service/facility.

Errors: Data in this publication is subject to sampling variability because it is based on information relating to a sample of residents rather than the total number. This difference (sampling error) may occur due to imperfections in reporting and errors made in processing the data. This may occur in any enumeration, whether it is a full count or sample.

Efforts have been made to reduce the non-sampling error by careful design of the questionnaire and detailed checking of completed questionnaires.

Key Findings

Overview (Overall satisfaction)

Overall, the research has found a moderate result for Hawkesbury City Council, with 33 of the 49 services/facilities/criteria rated as being of 'moderate satisfaction' to 'very high satisfaction'.

At an overall level, residents expressed a 'moderate' level of satisfaction with the performance of Council, with 77% of the respondents giving a rating of 'somewhat satisfied' to 'very satisfied'.

In the last 12 months, Hawkesbury has underperformed compared to LGA satisfaction benchmarks. Council needs to identify how this can be corrected.

Q. Overall for the last 12 months, how satisfied are you with the performance of Council, not just on one or two issues but across all responsibility areas?

Satisfaction with Council's Consultation with the Community

Summary

Compared to 2011, residents were significantly more satisfied with Council's consultation with the community.

70% of residents indicated that they were at least 'somewhat satisfied' with Council's consultation with the community. Only 11% of residents indicated that they were 'not at all satisfied'.

- Tree preservation

Comparisons with the research results over the past year indicate a significant decline in residents' levels of satisfaction with 7 of the 49 services and facilities provided by Council:

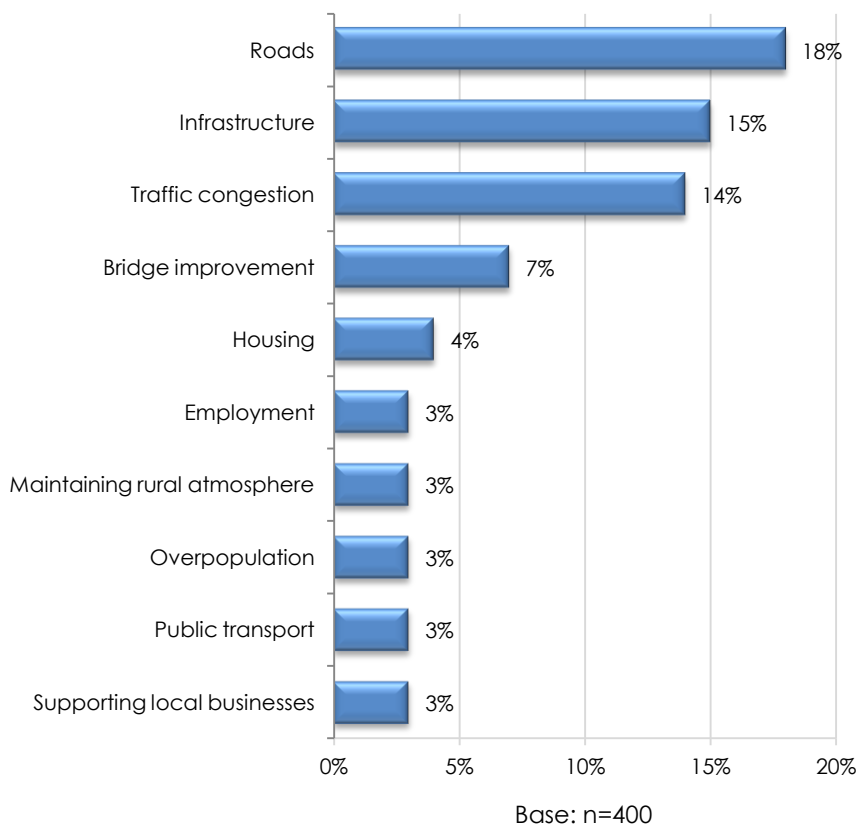

- Engaging the community in making decisions
- Gallery/Museum
- Garbage services
- Improving services and infrastructure
- Lobbying State & Federal government for improved service levels

Key Findings

Key Challenge Facing Hawkesbury in the Next 10 Years

Residents indicated that overpopulation and all it brings in terms of infrastructural needs are the key long term challenges that residents believe the Hawkesbury LGA needs to address.

Q. Thinking of Hawkesbury as a whole, what would you say is the key challenge facing the area in the next 10 years?

Key Findings

Key Findings

Identifying Priorities via Specialised Analysis (Explanation)

The specified research outcomes required us to measure both community importance and community satisfaction with a range of specific service delivery areas. In order to identify core priorities, we undertook a 2 step analysis process on the stated importance and rated satisfaction data, after which we conducted a third level of analysis. This level of analysis was a Shapley Regression on the data in order to identify which facilities and services are the actual drivers of overall satisfaction with Council.

By examining both approaches to analysis we have been able to:

1. Identify and understand the hierarchy of community priorities
2. Inform the deployment of Council resources in line with community aspirations

Step 1. Performance Gap Analysis (PGA)

PGA establishes the gap between importance and satisfaction. This is calculated by subtracting the mean satisfaction score from the mean importance score. In order to measure performance gaps, respondents are asked to rate the importance of, and their satisfaction with, each of a range of different services or facilities on a scale of 1 to 5, where 1 = low importance or satisfaction and 5 = high importance or satisfaction. These scores are aggregated at a total community level.

The higher the differential between importance and satisfaction, the greater the difference is between the provision of that service by Hawkesbury City Council and the expectation of the community for that service/facility.

In the table on the following page, we can see the 49 services and facilities that residents rated by importance and then by satisfaction.

When analysing the performance gaps, it is important to recognise that, for the most part, a gap of up to 1.0 is acceptable when the initial importance rating is 4.0+, as it indicates that residents consider the attribute to be of 'high' to 'very high' importance and that the satisfaction they have with Hawkesbury City Council's performance on that same measure, is 'moderate' to 'moderately high'.

For example, 'car parks' was given an importance score of 4.18, which indicates that it is considered an area of 'high' importance by residents. At the same time it was given a satisfaction score of 3.19, which indicates that residents are 'moderately satisfied' with Hawkesbury City Council's performance and focus on that measure.

In the case of a performance gap such as for the 'libraries' (3.74 importance vs. 4.24 satisfaction), we can identify that the facility/service has a 'moderately high' importance to the broader community, but for residents who feel that this facility is important, it is providing a 'very high' level of satisfaction.

Key Findings

When analysing performance gap data, it is important to consider both stated satisfaction and the absolute size of the performance gap.

Key Findings

When we examine the 9 largest performance gaps, we can identify that all the services or facilities have been rated as 'very high' to 'extremely high' in importance. Resident satisfaction for all of these areas is between 2.18 and 2.98, which indicates that resident satisfaction for these measures is 'low' to 'moderately low'.

Ranking	Service/ Facility	Importance Mean	Satisfaction Mean	Performance Gap
1	Road maintenance	4.64	2.18	2.46
2	Improving services & infrastructure	4.48	2.57	1.91
3	Engaging the community in making decisions	4.29	2.50	1.79

7	Healthy & sustainable Hawkesbury River and waterways	4.52	2.90	1.62
8	Supporting a wider communications network	4.32	2.76	1.56

The key outcomes of this analysis would suggest that, while there are opportunities to improve satisfaction across a range of services/facilities, 'road maintenance' is the area of least relative satisfaction.

Note: Performance gap is the first step in the process, we now need to identify comparative ratings across all services and facilities to get an understanding of relative importance and satisfaction at an LGA level. This is when we undertake step 2 of the analysis.

Key Findings

Quadrant Analysis

Step 2. Quadrant Analysis

Quadrant analysis is a useful tool for planning future directions. It combines the stated needs of the community and assesses Hawkesbury City Council's performance in relation to these needs.

This analysis is completed by plotting the variables on x and y axes, defined by stated importance and rated satisfaction. We aggregate the mean scores for stated importance and rated satisfaction to identify where the facility or service should be plotted. For these criteria, the average stated importance score was 4.0 and the average rated satisfaction score was 3.21. Therefore, any facility or service that received a mean stated importance score of ≥ 4.0 would be plotted in the higher importance section and, conversely, any that scored < 4.00 would be plotted into the lower importance section. The same exercise is undertaken with the satisfaction ratings above, equal to or below 3.21. Each service or facility is then plotted in terms of satisfaction and importance, resulting in its placement in one of four quadrants.

Key Findings

Explaining the 4 quadrants

Attributes in the top right quadrant, MAINTAIN, such as 'emergency service planning', are Council's core strengths, and should be treated as such. Maintain, or even attempt to improve your position in these areas, as they are influential and address clear community needs.

Attributes in the top left quadrant, IMPROVE, such as 'road maintenance', are areas where Council is perceived to be currently under-performing and are key concerns in the eyes of your residents. In the vast majority of cases you should aim to improve your performance in these areas to better meet the community's expectations.

Attributes in the bottom left quadrant, NICHE, such as 'youth centres and facilities', are of a relatively lower priority (and the word 'relatively' should be stressed – they are still important). These areas tend to be important to a particular segment of the community.

Finally, attributes in the bottom right quadrant, SECONDARY, such as 'libraries', are core strengths, but in relative terms they are less important than other areas and Council's servicing in these areas may already be exceeding expectation. Consideration could be given to rationalising focus in these areas as they are not community priorities for improvement.

Recommendations based only on stated importance and satisfaction have major limitations, as the actual questionnaire process essentially 'silos' facilities and services as if they are independent variables, when they are in fact all part of the broader community perception of Council performance.

Residents' priorities identified in stated importance/satisfaction analysis often tend to be in areas that are problematic. No matter how much focus a Council dedicates to 'road maintenance', it will often be found in the IMPROVE quadrant. This is because, perceptually, the condition of local roads can always be better.

Furthermore, the outputs of stated importance and satisfaction analysis address the current dynamics of the community, they do not predict which focus areas are the most likely agents to change the community's perception of Council's overall performance.

Therefore, in order to identify how Hawkesbury City Council can actively drive overall community satisfaction, we conducted further analysis.

Key Findings

The Shapley Value Regression

We recently finalised the development of a Council Satisfaction Model to identify priorities that will drive overall satisfaction with Council.

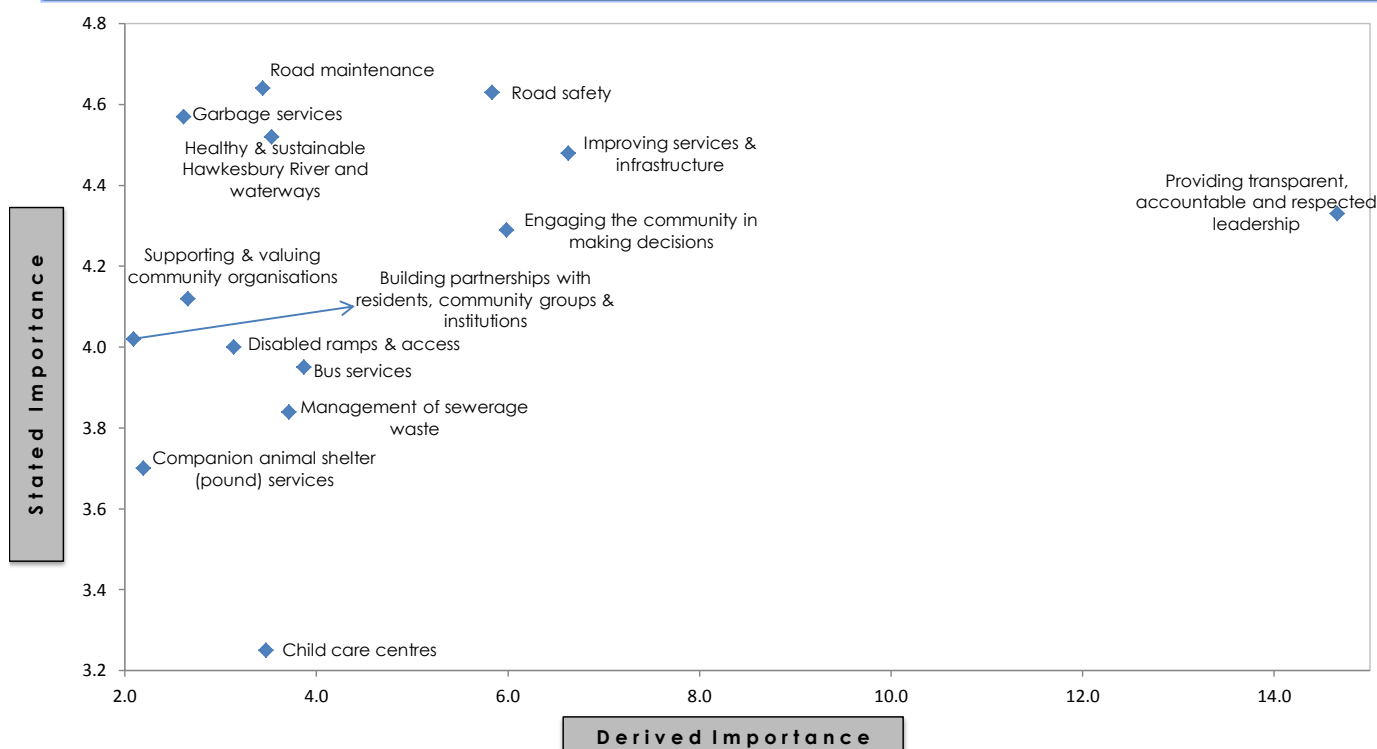

This model was developed by conducting specialised analysis from over 30,000 LGA interviews conducted since 2005. In essence, it proved that increasing resident satisfaction by actioning the priorities they stated as being important does not necessarily positively impact on overall satisfaction with the Council. This regression analysis is a statistical tool for investigating relationships between dependent variables and explanatory variables.

What Does This Mean?

The learning is that if we only rely on the stated community priorities, we will not be allocating the appropriate resources to the actual service attributes that will improve overall community satisfaction. Using regression analysis we can identify the attributes that essentially build overall satisfaction. We call the outcomes 'derived importance'.

Correlation Between Stated Importance and Derived Importance is Low

If you only focus on stated importance, you are not focusing on the key drivers of community satisfaction

In the chart above, on the vertical axis of 'stated importance', all the facilities/services fall in relatively close proximity to each other (i.e. between approximately 3.2 & 4.8), however, on the horizontal axis the attributes are spread between 2.0 and 15.0. The further an attribute is found to the right of the horizontal axis of 'derived importance', the more it contributes in driving overall satisfaction with Council.

Key Findings

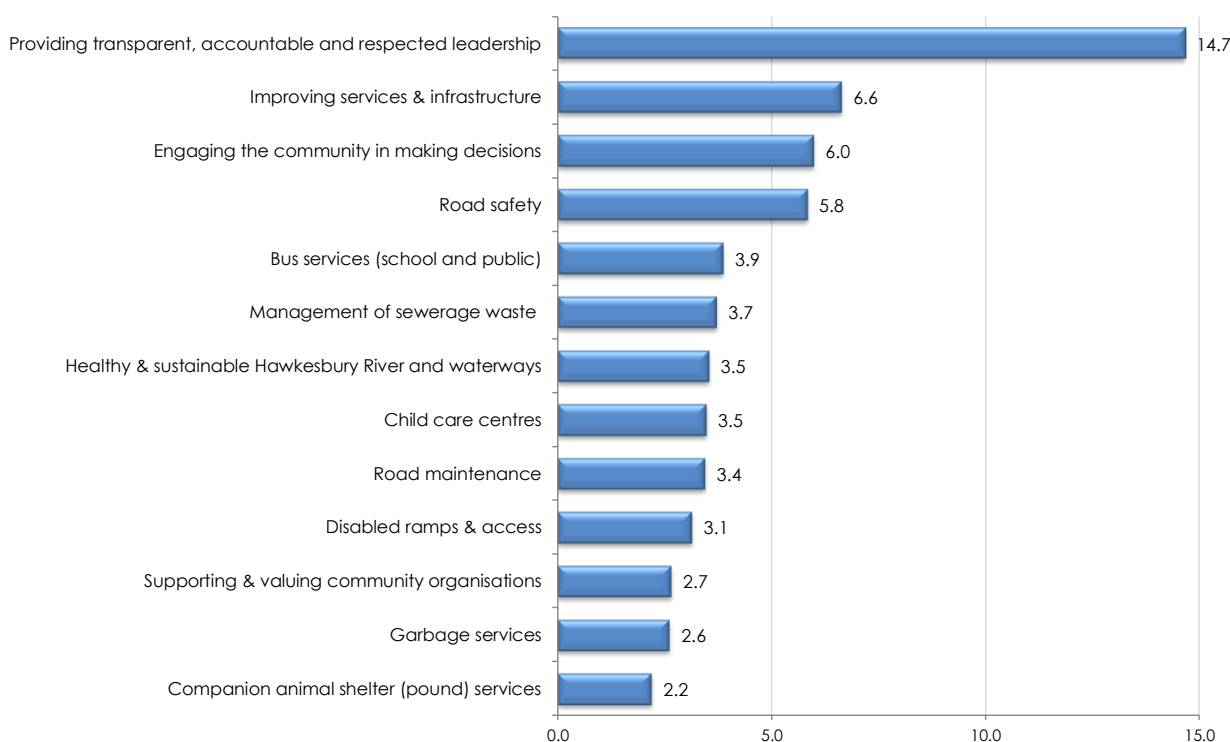

Key Drivers of Satisfaction with Hawkesbury City Council

The results in the chart below provide Hawkesbury City Council with a complete picture of both the extrinsic and intrinsic community priorities and motivations and identify what attributes are the key drivers of community satisfaction.

These top 13 services/facilities account for over 60% of overall satisfaction with Council. This indicates that the remaining 36 attributes we obtained measures on have only a limited impact on the community's satisfaction with Hawkesbury City Council's performance. Therefore, whilst all 49 service/facility areas are important, only a minority of them are significant drivers of the community's overall satisfaction with Council.

These Top 13 Indicators Contribute To Over 60% Of Overall Satisfaction With Council

The contributors to satisfaction are not to be misinterpreted as an indication of current dissatisfaction

These 13 services/facilities are the key community priorities and by addressing these, Hawkesbury City Council will improve overall community satisfaction. The score assigned to each area indicates the percentage of influence each attribute contributes to overall satisfaction with Council.

In the above chart, 'companion animal shelter (pound) services' contributes 2.2% towards overall satisfaction, while 'providing transparent, accountable and respected leadership' (14.7%) is a far stronger driver, contributing almost seven times as much to overall satisfaction with Council.

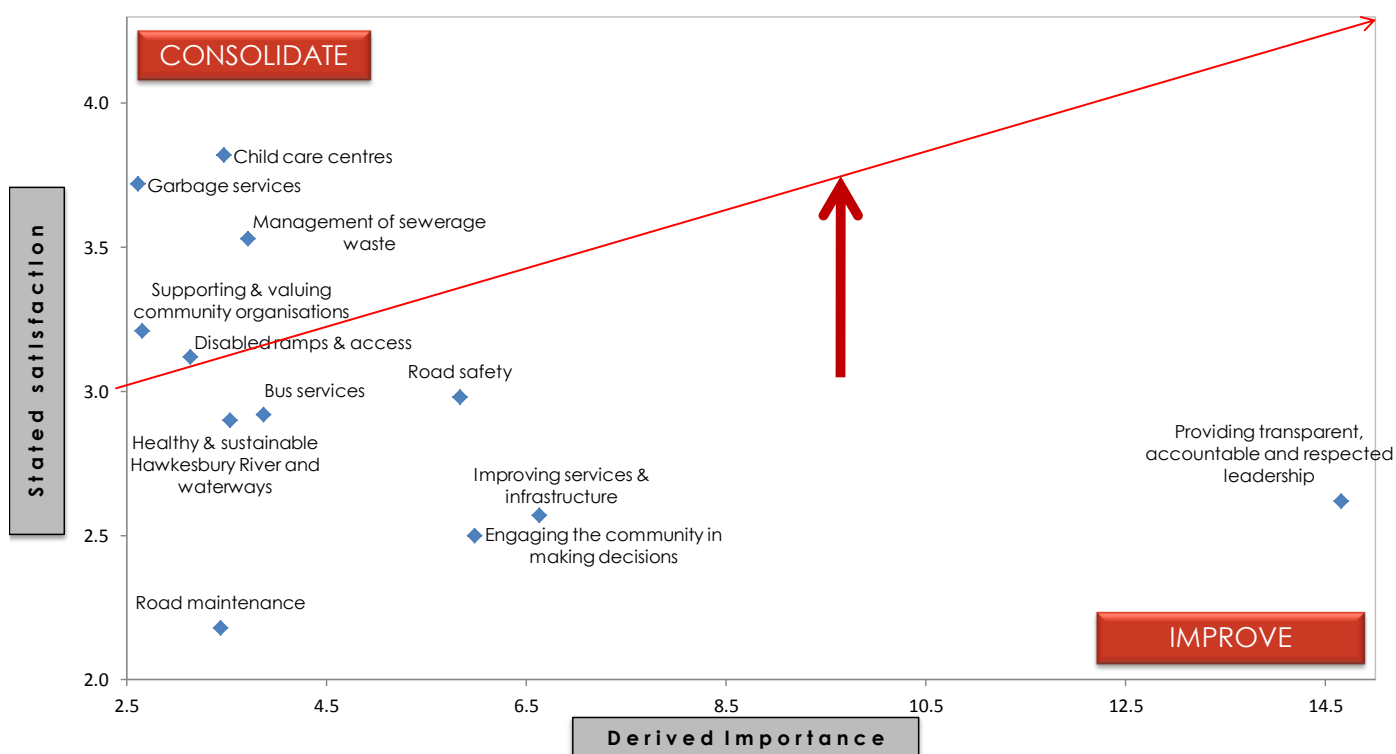

Key Findings

Clarifying Priorities

If Hawkesbury City Council can address these core drivers, they will be able to improve resident satisfaction with their performance. In the chart below we can see that, for many of the core drivers, Council is already performing reasonably well. There are clear opportunities, however, to improve satisfaction with the services/facilities that fall below the diagonal line.

Mapping Stated Satisfaction And Derived Importance Identifies The Community Priority Areas

The key driver of overall community satisfaction with Council revolves around providing transparent, accountable and respected leadership

The key outcomes of this analysis indicate that 'providing transparent, accountable and respected leadership', 'improving services & infrastructure' and 'engaging the community in making decisions' are priority areas from a resident perspective.

Summary of Critical Outcomes

The summary table below combines the outcomes of the regression analysis with the stated importance and satisfaction outcomes of the performance gap and quadrant analysis.

In developing future plans and strategies, Hawkesbury City Council should consider the implications raised by each form of analysis.

	Shapley's Analysis	Gap Analysis	Quadrant Analysis
Providing transparent, accountable and respected leadership	14.7	1.71	Improve
Improving services & infrastructure (generally)	6.6	1.91	Improve
Engaging the community in making decisions	6.0	1.79	Improve
Road safety	5.8	1.65	Improve
Bus services (school and public)	3.9	1.03	Niche
Management of sewerage waste (pump-out)	3.7	0.31	Secondary
Healthy & sustainable Hawkesbury River and waterways	3.5	1.62	Improve
Child care centres	3.5	-0.57	Secondary
Road maintenance	3.4	2.46	Improve
Disabled ramps & access	3.1	0.88	Improve
Supporting & valuing community organisations	2.7	0.91	Maintain
Garbage services	2.6	0.85	Maintain

Summary & Recommendations

As with many residents living in fast growing LGAs, the primary concerns for most residents of the Hawkesbury LGA revolve around population growth and a perceived lack of supporting infrastructure and facilities, i.e. roads, bridges, parking, parks, schools and hospitals to support the area.

When prompted, 87% of the community supported Hawkesbury Council exploring 'streamlining Council organisational efficiencies'. 83% also supported 'redirecting funding to highest priority assets' and 55% supported 'selling off surplus community assets' as a method to address Council's future funding requirements.

The regression data identifies that 'providing transparent, accountable and respected leadership' is a key driver of satisfaction. 'improving services and infrastructure', 'engaging the community in making decisions', 'road safety', 'bus services' and 'management of sewerage waste' are also salient drivers of community satisfaction.

The research indicates that Council should:

1. Examine the options of streamlining Council organisational efficiencies and redirecting funding to highest priority assets as methods to address future funding requirements, or at least amplifying communications that address this issue
2. Clarify community expectations with regard to providing transparent, accountable and respected leadership and improving services & infrastructure
3. Reassess Council's current communication/consultation and engagement strategies. Seek to utilise a variety of methods and mediums that could better inform/engage/involve the community
4. Understand community requirements with regard to improving services and infrastructure
5. Explore expectations and issues regarding the condition and maintenance of the local road network

Some of these issues could be explored via qualitative community focus groups/workshops.

Council Services and Facilities

Importance of, and Satisfaction with, Council Services and Facilities

The Unipolar Scale of 1 to 5, where 1 was the lowest importance or satisfaction and 5 the highest importance or satisfaction, was used in all rating questions.

Interpreting the Mean Scores

Within the report, the mean ratings for each of the criteria have been assigned a determined level of 'importance' or 'satisfaction'. This determination is based on the following groupings:

Mean rating:

1.99 or lower	'Very low' level of importance/satisfaction
2.00 – 2.49	'Low' level of importance/satisfaction
2.50 – 2.99	'Moderately low' levels of importance/satisfaction
3.00 – 3.59	'Moderate' level of importance/satisfaction
3.60 – 3.89	'Moderately high' level of importance/satisfaction
3.90 – 4.19	'High' level of importance/satisfaction
4.20 – 4.49	'Very high' level of importance/satisfaction
4.50 +	'Extreme' level of importance/satisfaction

Participants were asked to indicate which best described their opinion of the importance of the following services/facilities to them. Respondents who rated services/facilities a 4 or 5 in importance were then asked to rate their satisfaction with that service/facility.
